I understand that the information used or disclosed pursuant to this authorization may be subject to redisclosure and no longer be protected under federal law. However, I also understand that federal or state law may restrict redisclosure of mental health information, genetic testing information, HIV/AIDS information, and drug/alcohol diagnosis, treatment or referral information.

You do not need to sign this authorization. Refusal to sign the authorization will not adversely affect your ability to receive health care services or reimbursement for services. The only circumstance when refusal to sign means you will not receive health care services is if the health care services are solely for the purpose of providing health information to someone else and the authorization is necessary to make that disclosure.

You may revoke this authorization in writing at any time. If you revoke your authorization, the information described above may no longer be used or disclosed for the purposes described in this written authorization. Any use or disclosure already made with your permission cannot be undone. To revoke this authorization, please send a written statement to C. David Maxey, M.A. and state that you are revoking this authorization.

Electronic communication by email or fax may not be secure and presents a significant risk to confidentiality. By placing an email address or fax number in the applicable space above, I am requesting electronic communication, and I acknowledge that I am aware of the significant additional risks to confidentiality.

I have read this authorization and I understand it. Unless revoked, this authorization expires on July 1st of the year after I sign this document.
